

LAURIE BERKNER SINGS WITH CMOM!

Join Laurie Berkner on a wacky elevator ride with this playful, catchy song that builds with each verse. Don't be surprised if you find yourself singing it the next time you are waiting for an elevator!

IDEAL AGE: 2+

LEARN TOGETHER

Singing with your child is a great way to bond, and helps children develop important communication and language skills from a very early age.

MATERIALS

- Computer, tablet, or phone to watch the video
- Different clothes, socks, hats, and scarves

SING TOGETHER

A leader and innovator in children's music and entertainment, recognized as "the queen of kids' music" by People magazine and "the Adele of the preschool crowd" by The New York Times, Laurie Berkner is a singer, songwriter, lyricist, author, and founder of Two Tomatoes Records, LLC.

Join Laurie Berkner on a wacky elevator ride as she sings "Waiting For The Elevator" on CMOM's YouTube Channel.

Try and guess which animal joins on each stop. Watch the video again to move your body to each animal movement.

- |                          |                        |
|--------------------------|------------------------|
| 1 The dog wags his tail. | 4 The elephant stomps. |
| 2 The cat jumps.         | 5 The alligator snaps. |
| 3 The cow rocks.         |                        |

What sounds does each animal make? Sing along with Laurie as she builds on each verse of the song.

If you got on an elevator as an animal, what animal would you be? Use your imagination as you try on different clothes, socks, hats, and scarves to dress up like your animal. What sounds and movement would you make?
