

MEDIA ALERT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CELEBRATE EID-AL-FITR AT CMOM – OPEN ON MONDAY, MARCH 31!

All Activities Free with Museum Admission

WHAT:

Join the Children's Museum of Manhattan (CMOM) for a joyful three-day celebration of Eid al-Fitr, marking the end of Ramadan with special programs designed to foster creativity, learning, and community. Families can participate in hands-on art-making, storytelling, dance performances, and more — all highlighting the traditions of this important holiday.

CMOM will be open on Monday, March 31, offering a full day of special activities, perfect for families looking for engaging and meaningful ways to celebrate together.

WHEN:

Saturday – Monday, March 29 – 31

Open Monday, March 31

WHERE:

Children's Museum of Manhattan

The Tisch Building, 212 West 83rd Street, New York, NY

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- Eid Charity Boxes — Create a box to fill with gifts or kind words to give to someone in need.
- Decorative Lanterns — Make your own colorful paper fanous, a traditional Ramadan lantern.
- Eid al-Fitr Celebration with The Culture Tree — Join us Monday afternoon for music, dance, henna body art, and storytelling!
- Kathak Dance Performance & Workshop with Sandhya Rajkumar
- Crescent Moon Read-Aloud with author Zainab Khan
- Collaborative Moon Artmaking
- Storytime featuring Ilyas & Duck & The Fantastic Festival of Eid al-Fitr

WHY:

CMOM's Eid al-Fitr programming celebrates the values of family, generosity, creativity, and community — and offers families opportunities to learn, create, and celebrate together.

VISIT DETAILS & FULL SCHEDULE

###

Press Contact

Ariel Handelman

Director of Strategic Communications, Brand, and Marketing

ahandelman@cmom.org